

Mohave County Juvenile Detention Center:

The Mohave County Juvenile Detention Center is a 32-bed facility. It houses male and female juveniles between the ages of 10 and the juvenile's 18th birthday. The decision to detain a juvenile(s) is made by a Juvenile Probation Officer. Juveniles remain detained per Court Order and who have been committed to the Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections (ADJC) waiting transport.

Each housing unit or "wing" is set up as follows:

Both wings include a large dayroom that is utilized for group activities such as church services (offered, but not required), sex-education for the older males and females which are held at different times and never held together. The day room is also where the juveniles receive their allotted free time during the evening hours. During this time juveniles may read, write letters, play cards, converse with other juveniles on appropriate topics or watch television. Television is a privilege and only allowed during non-programming times. Programs are age appropriate and approved by the supervisor. Each wing has two bathrooms one on each level. The bathroom includes a toilet, sink and shower stall. Additionally, there are two rooms in each wing equipped with a toilet and sink. All movements of the juveniles are supervised by detention officers. Juveniles must request to leave their seat, get a drink of water or use the restroom etc.
